-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Detailed Action

This action is in response to the application filed on 8/18/06.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1-12 are, drawn to a process of settling an electronic transaction, claims recite specific features of customer providing merchant with customer ID

II. Claims 21-24 are, drawn to an apparatus that receive a customer ID, contacts customer for payment method, sends ID to financial service provider, transmits a denial response.

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case, the apparatus (system) in inventions I (claims 1-12) can be used in a materially different process than that recited in method claims of inventions II as explained below.

The apparatus recited in Invention II can be used for (here describe the process that the apparatus performs) which is materially different than the process recited in invention I for example, (describe the materially different process step(s) which are found in claims 1-12 but are distinct and non obvious from the process that the apparatus performs).

Examiner Note

The examiner would like to note that at the time of the interview with the attorney it was not determined that a restriction was necessary. Once an election has been made should the attorney wish to have an additional interview based on the elected claims the examiner would be open to this.
